B section	1 st place	Brian Blackmore/Paula Gibb, Margaret Doak/Mavis Anderson
	3 rd	Chi Chi Murray/Alanna Waugh, Cindy Macintosh/ Lynne Macfarlane

Two of our newest players Marie Hodgetts and Neil McWaters received their first masterpoint red points over the event.

The Maureen Barton award – to a Yeppoon player with less than 30 green points – went to Sue Asher who kindly stepped in for an ill Saturday contestant.

Congratulations to all Yeppoon players and associates who performed so well over the two days and also to those who came to the bridge table and gave their best effort.

The committee would like to thank all members (+ partners) who helped in any way to make our congress the success it has gained a good reputation for, as good feed-back was received from many participants in the event.

In October Paula Gibb and Brian Blackmore will be contesting the finals of the Zone pairs in Brisbane, so we wish them good luck and good bridging.

Finally, on a sadder note, we lost one of our regular visitor players from Rockhampton with the passing of Del Dawson – R.I.P. Del
